HomePlate dinners provide a wide variety of support for youth who are in need or are experiencing housing instability. Of course, there is plenty of hot food served by smiling volunteers. After dinner, a professional coach opens the gym for supervised gym time with athletic games. For those who want a quieter activity, volunteers lead crafts such as pottery, nail painting, and watercolors. Staff and volunteers provide homework resources, a listening ear, and help finding a job. Shower facilities, bus passes, and hygiene supplies are available. A large team of Prince of Peace donors and volunteers help with all of these things every month. Curious? You're welcome to come and observe.

happy anniversary
