This month the Prints and Pieces wall features two artworks by Larry Gross. The smaller one, entitled "Changing Darkness into Light," is based on Isaiah 9:2 - "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light." This relates to the topic of darkness into light which was the focus of the PoP campout morning Bible studies and evening devotions. The larger painting is entitled "Righteousness and Peace Kiss," and is based on Psalm 85:10. It relates to this year's Sunday School theme of truth and grace. Larry will lead a discussion of the painting for the Sunday School on Rally Day.

Although HomePlate has a small paid staff, it is largely powered by volunteers and donations. Every year several long term volunteers come from Jesuit Volunteer Corps / Americorps and stay for a year. This summer we said goodbye to two JV interns, Megan and Laura. They've supported drop-in volunteers, planned trips for youth, connected with youth at drop-in dinners, and run the Day Space. Jesuit Volunteer Corps is a great service program and we look forward to meeting new interns.
