One of HomePlate’s goals is to teach job skills to older homeless youth. Especially in the current booming Portland rental market, holding a job is nearly a necessity for being able to pay rent toward a place to live. The Youth Employment program provides several job training programs, including HomePerk. HomePerk is a 6-week program hosted on Sunday mornings at the Bethel Congregational United Church of Christ’s coffee hour to teach catering and customer service skills. HomePlate youth set up and run coffee and snack service for the worshippers.
